Course Description

This course considers the information requirements of those who consult and use legal information. Focus occurs on the provision of library and information services to clients in those environments. A range of information sources, including legislation, jurisprudence, and commentary is surveyed.

Course policies

Writing

Professional, grammatically correct writing is expected. This means that spelling, punctuation, and grammar are part of assignment evaluation. If you need assistance with writing, find someone whose writing skills you trust to review your written work or visit the Writing Support Centre (<http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/writing/>).

Academic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following site: (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_grad.pdf).

Attendance

Attendance at all classes is mandatory. Please see the section on attendance in the MLIS Graduate Handbook. Allowances will be made for attendance at professional conferences and job interviews only if you are in good standing in the course AND if you consult with me in advance of your absence.

Communication

The instructor plans to respond within 24 hours to all relevant course email that is sent to the instructor's attention.

Assignments

Assignments should have single-spaced lines. Assignments have due dates and instructions posted to the course site on OWL. Assignments are due unless other arrangements apply. Late assignments without prior arrangement or accommodation for illness are subject to a penalty of ½ a grade per day.

Grading

Grading will conform to the guidelines published in the MLIS Graduate Student Handbook (http://intra.fims.uwo.ca/students/handbooks/mlis/mlis-handbook-04.htm#P269_25111).

Accommodation for Illness

Documentation for an illness will not be required unless it is requested by the instructor. Upon such a request, the student should submit documentation to the FIMS Dean's office. The UWO Policy on Accommodation for Illness can be consulted for further information (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_illness.pdf).

Support Services

Students are directed to support services that are provided by the University of Western Ontario. These support services include the following:

Office of the Registrar (<http://www.registrar.uwo.ca>)

USC services such as peer support, food support, inclusivity programming, transportation, and health services (<http://westernusc.ca/services/>)

Student Development Centre (<http://sdc.uwo.ca/>)

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western (<http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/>) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Methods of Evaluation

Students are required to attend class, participate, and submit the following assignments:

Assignment Name	Weight
Definitions Assignment	15%
Business Case	30%
Legal Topic Report	35%
Pathfinder Presentation*	20%

This solo presentation is drawn from the pathfinder topical assignment. It offers an opportunity for students to share their findings with the class. Various presentation dates during the final weeks of the course are available for selection by students.
