ACADEMIC LIBRARIES (Distance)
GRADLIS 9630
COURSE OUTLINE
Summer 2021

1. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic libraries are complex organizations. This course focuses on the changing environment of academic libraries and the evolving roles of academic librarians.

Topics covered include:

- Academic libraries in the context of institutions of higher learning.
- Strategic issues and trends, including scholarly communication and publishing, funding and access models, physical and digital library spaces and communities, and performance measures and assessment.
- User populations, their needs and information-seeking behaviour.
- Impact of digital resources on collections, access, services and instruction.
- Academic librarians as information specialist, educator, scholar and leader.

The course is organized into five modules (broad themes) – Introduction and Context, Academic Library Users, Environment and Infrastructure, Roles for Academic Librarians, and Conclusion – with one or more weekly lessons (specific topics) associated with each module. Over the thirteen lessons of the course, we will explore these aspects at a necessarily high level. It is hoped that the readings, assignments and learning activities will offer you the opportunity to explore areas of special interest to you in more depth.

2. COURSE - LEVEL LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of readings, assignments, and class participation, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of social, cultural, and economic contexts related to academic libraries and higher education (Program-level learning outcomes 1, 2, 5).
- Demonstrate awareness of, and analyze, current issues, trends, challenges, and opportunities in academic libraries (Program-level learning outcomes 1, 2, 5).
- Demonstrate knowledge of user populations of academic libraries and their needs (Program-level learning outcomes 2, 5).
- Conduct research, and write/communicate professionally (Program-level learning outcomes 1, 3, 7).

3. COURSE DELIVERY

Classes will be conducted asynchronously using OWL, Western's learning management system (login at <https://owl.uwo.ca/portal/>), complemented by weekly synchronous Zoom sessions to be held from 10:00 - 11:30 on Tuesday mornings.

Lessons and core readings will be posted in OWL. Assignments, including participation activities, must be submitted in OWL. Students are expected to prepare for each week's topic by reading, and reflecting on, posted content and recommended literature, and to participate actively in weekly group discussions and other learning activities through OWL.

4. COURSE MATERIALS

There is no textbook for the course. Each week's lesson includes a short list of Core Readings. All Core Readings for all lessons are available in OWL from the start of the course, posted with the relevant lesson.

Additional readings are listed as part of each week's lesson. Most of the additional readings are available online through Western Libraries' licenses for digital resources; some are available freely over the Internet. Readings that would be difficult to retrieve in the published literature or through a Web link will be posted in OWL with the relevant lesson, labelled as Other Readings.

General course documents are posted in OWL in Lesson 0 (zero), where you will find the Course Outline (this document) and the Journal Club Schedule (assigned weeks and topics) as well as other documents that emerge during the course.

5. CITATION STYLE

You are free to choose your preferred citation style (e.g., APA, MLA, Chicago), but please be consistent in its use. Include sufficient bibliographic detail to allow the referenced material to be retrieved by the instructor and course colleagues. See Purdue's University's OWL (Online Writing Lab) for guidance on writing, organizing your work, and citing sources.

6. METHODS of EVALUATION

Essays – two (2) at 25 % Selected from topics associated with weekly lessons; 1 st essay is due by the end of week 5; 2 nd essay is due by the end of week 12.	50 %
Report on Site Visit Physical and virtual spaces of an academic library or related institution; due by the end of week 8.	20 %
Journal Club Critical analysis of peer-reviewed article; includes presentation and facilitation of class discussion; presenter role once per term in assigned week.	15 %
Participation Weekly OWL/ZOOM discussions and learning activities; audience role for Journal Club twice per term in assigned weeks.	15 %

7. STATEMENT on ACADEMIC OFFENCES

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_discipline\_grad.pdf.

See also Policies & Procedures - Academic Offences posted on the FIMS Graduate Intranet. For guidance in using copyrighted materials in an informed and responsible manner, see Western's copyright site <http://copyright.uwo.ca/>, managed by Western Libraries.

Students are expected to analyze and synthesize the literature, and present their own ideas, observations and opinions on assignment topics. Students must write assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage, from another author, they must acknowledge the source both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism (the unacknowledged use of another's work) is one of the most serious academic offences, as it involves fraud and misrepresentation.

Note that extensive use of quotations (more than 20% of word count) that artificially inflates the word count is considered "insufficiently original" and will be judged accordingly.

8. SUPPORT SERVICES

Students who are in emotional or mental distress should refer to Mental Health @ Western <http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/> for a complete list of help options.

The Writing Support Centre offers seminars and online writing assistance for graduate students at <http://writing.uwo.ca/gradspostdocs/index.html>.

9. OFFICE HOURS & COMMUNICATION

Synchronous
